

The adoption of an 'Age Verification Policy' is a legal requirement under the Licensing Act 2003 and applies in relation to the sale and supply of alcohol from these premises.

UNDER

21

It's an offence to purchase or attempt to purchase alcohol if you're under 18.

Staff have been instructed that if you look under 21 years of age, you'll be asked to show identification (driving licence or passport) proving you are 18 years old or older when you buy alcohol.
